3:15 PM – 4:00 PM      Sharing Your MO Highway 36 Stories with a Wider Audience
Geoff Giglierano – Executive Director
Missouri Humanities Council

The new Executive Director of the Missouri Humanities Council comes to Missouri with more than 30 years of experience as a consultant and administrator, educator and historian at a variety of museums and non-profit organizations throughout the country.

Geoff Giglierano knows that Missouri is made up of fascinating places with wonderful stories... yet so many stories of Missouri's history and its people are unfamiliar, or largely unknown. Geoff explains to us how placing our stories in a larger historic context will assist communities, museums, historical societies and others in telling their best stories to the visitor.
