Macon, Mo — Craig Bonnett of Macon had the honor of portraying Theodore Gary last Saturday morning at Macon's U. S. Highway 36/Interstate 72 Dedication and Ribbon Cutting Ceremony. There were other portrayals of famous Missourians, but Bonnet was the only local actor. Maconite Gary is known for his patent of the dial telephone and being a great philanthropist. A photo gallery of the ribbon cutting ceremony will be featured at maconch.com and later this week in the Chronicle-Herald.
