1:30 pm - Tour Mark Twain’s Cave where he came up with some of his fascinating story lines!

Explore the cave that Mark Twain made famous! This cave, which young Sam Clemens explored as a youth, was immortalized in The Adventures of Tom Sawyer. The Mark Twain Cave is also the oldest show cave in the state of Missouri, giving tours for over 114 years. Allow 1 hour for the tour of the Mark Twain Cave.

2:30 pm - Free time/downtown shopping

4:00 pm - Board the Hannibal trolley or use a step-on guide for a fun and informative sightseeing tour of Hannibal.

You'll see notable landmarks as well as learn some history you may not have known about Hannibal – Mark Twain isn't the only claim to fame the town has to offer!

5:00 pm - Enjoy a live stage performance from Mark Twain Himself!

This show will take you back to the days of Twain's famous stage shows. Richard Garey brings Twain alive as you enjoy a light Victorian tea. This live theater show has been performed to great reviews in over forty states and Canada and now makes its home in Hannibal. In this show Garey recreates the famous Mark Twain shows of 100+ years ago. Did you know in his lifetime Mark Twain was just as famous for his shows as he was for his writing?

6:15 pm - All aboard the Mark Twain Riverboat for a beautiful evening dinner cruise.

Return to the glory days of riverboats and enjoy the scenes of the Mississippi. Enjoy a buffet dinner and relax or dance while you enjoy live music. Stroll the decks or step up to the Pilothouse to meet the captain and be entertained with stories of the river.

8:40 pm - Return to Hotel
